UNI Grads To Lead Parade

Dr. Donald Adams, vice-president of student life at Drake University, and Thomas Pettit will serve as Grand Marshalls for the Homecoming Parade Saturday.

Pettit, currently a resident of Burbank, Calif., and a member of the NBC news force, was sports editor of the University newspaper in the early '50s. Pettit is best known for his coverage of the Jack Ruby-Lee Harvey Oswald assassination in 1963.

Adams is a 1957 graduate of UNI. While attending UNI he was very active in college affairs. He served on the Men's Union Board which worked to coordinate all campus activities and was a member of the Student League Board which was similar to our Student Senate. He belonged to Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity and was also on the College Eye staff.

In his junior year Don Adams was a Popularity Contest winner. He received the Purple Key in his senior year. One per cent of the student body was chosen yearly for that award. The Purple Key recognition was "the epitome of success" and the highest award a student could receive at Teacher's College.

In 1957 Adams earned his bachelor of arts degree. After graduat-

Dr. Adams became Assistant Dean of Men at Michigan State in 1963, and in 1965 he became Director and Head Resident of Dorms there.

He has served as consultant for student personnel programs at more than 11 colleges and universities.

Parade co-chairman Jan Grove said, "We are very fortunate to have persons of such high esteem as our parade Grand Marshalls."
